

HOLYMAMA VILLAGE

Welcome to our HolyMama village in the heart of Ibiza. This country finca with pristine pine forest and fruit trees has panoramic views over the island. There are over three hectares of finca grounds to relax in, and each villa has its own pool. The yoga and activities take place in a geodesic dome, that we open up for clean island forest air. We're just 5 minutes from the charming village of Santa Gertrudis, 10 minutes from stylish Ibiza Town and a mere 20 minutes drive from the airport: Easily accessible and close to everything with a spacious feeling of 'retreating', away from the stresses of urban life.

The nine bedrooms at our sumptuous Balearic-style villas have attached bathrooms and double beds or single beds. All rooms come fully equipped with air-con, hairdryers, white bed-linen and duvets. The south-facing villas were re-built in 2009 with terraces overlooking the gentle Mediterranean countryside.

Clean, warm Balearic styling throughout and local touches like the sweet smelling Sabena wood beams and dry-stone exposed walls.

Come and experience the classic white Ibiza feeling. This natural location with zero noise or light pollution supports your body to relax and exhale. It is a healing spot on an island that energetically supports transformation.

On site: Infinity pools, with relaxation areas and external showers, hammocks and Balinese beds, terraces, balconies, fruit trees and pine forest on the finca property.

We have plenty of personal space to retreat to and collective areas to connect in.

HOLYMAMA LOVEFIELD

"The retreat gave me time to think about what I want. In normal life, we don't have time to recognise what is important." Wayni, Switzerland

"So I arrived at the retreat quite stressed, with things going on in my personal life and I was needing to get away. Over the course of the week, I've really relaxed. I've had some lovely treatments and yoga and time away with my boy bonding. I just feel so grounded and at peace and ready to go back into into the world." Clare, Scotland

"I loved it. I really really loved it. It was the first time since I had children (and I have four) that I had some time for myself, reflecting a lot on what I want. Sometimes I was even to just be silent with myself."
Marie-Louise, Germany

"Dear HolyMama team. What can I say apart from, "Wow!". This week has truly been one of the most amazing, uplifting and empowering experiences of my life. It went way beyond all expectations."
Emma, UK

"Dear HolyMama Team, I thank you from the bottom of my heart for such an inspiring, calming, uplifting and energising week. I feel like I have done a real reset and ready to go back with a lot more inner strength to face absolutely anything back at home and at work."
Ulle, Germany

"Dear HolyMama team, Thank you for a truly transformative week. I thought I was coming for some mummy yoga and quality baba time but it has been so much more. You create a nourishing, supportive, enabling bosom that inspires self reflection and transformation. I hope we can bring this way of living out to our communities and spread the love."

Sarah, Ireland

"The HolyMama retreat was pure magic. I feel so much more grounded right now. And I really feel myself again. It has helped me with my healing process and my journey as a mother."

Sofia, Holland

"I'm the kind of person who has never been on a retreat before - it's the first time that I've ever experienced something like this. It has brought me back to myself. What I needed was some balance, some time, some space and also time with my daughter. I found the whole experience to be incredible. I feel like I've had some kind of amazing detox as well. So overall, it's brought me back to myself and I feel strong, healthy and ready to take on whatever life throws at me next."

Joanna, UK
